NEW REMEDY FOR DEAFNESS.
In a communication in this week's Loncet, from Mr. Curtis, the Surgeon to the Royal Dispensity for Discusses of the Ear, who from his itaation must have had great experience in this had of practice, an account is given of the curtice, and account is given of the curtice, and account is given of the curtice of the curt physical of a new remedy for Diseases of the Er, the value of which has been exemplified in seteral cases. After remarking on the prevalent mistake that these diseases are incurable, and that the consequent neglect of them, to shich he attributes the greatest number of cases of deafness, he observes that one of the principil and most common causes of that inalady is night and most heiency of the natural secretion, arising from a want of action in the ceruminous glands, on emoval of which the deafness generally disapwars. For the purpose of effecting this Mr. Certishas lately employed a solution of kreos ite, the application of which does not cause any pain or smarting sensation, the only sensible efket produced being a feeling of agreeable warmth. This preparation excites the action of the glands, and causes an abundant secretion of cerumon, thereby restoring hearing.

ON LOW SPIRIPS.

Low spirits is a certain state of the mind, accompanied by indig stion, wherein the greatest evits are appeared upon the slightest grounds, and the worst causequences imagined. Ancient medical writers supposed this disease to be confined to those particular regions of the saled one technically called nypochondria, which are situated on the right or left side of that castly, whence comes the name hypochondriasis.

Symptoms. The common corporeal symptoms are, faitalency in the stomach or boxels, send cructations, redirences, spasmodic pains and often an utter mability of fixing the attention upon any subject of importance or engaging in any tung that demands vigour or coarage. Also languidness—the mind becomes intuition, thoughtful, desponding, meluncholy and deject-deacompanied by a total derangement of the nervous system. The montal foelings and premier train of less that haunt the imagination and overwhelm the judgment, exhibit an infinite diversity. Dr. W. Evan? Celebrated Soothing Syrup, for Children Cutting their Teeth.
This in Allible remedy has preserved hundreds of children, when thought past recovery, from convalsions. As soon as the Syrup is rabbed on the guns, the child will recover. This preparation is so innocent, so effications, and so pleasant that no child will rese to let its guns be rubbed with. When infinite are at the age of four months, there have us no uppearance of teeth, one bottle of the Syrup should be used on the guns, to epen the porce. Parents should here be without the Syrup in the nursery where there are young children; for if a child wakes in the night with pain in the gams, the Syrup immodiately gives case by opening the porce and healing the guns; thereby preventing Convulsions, Fevers, &c.
